: Byberry Quakers

Through all of these crises, we have (and will continue) to be right here, as a spiritual resource for the community.
The Covid-19 pandemic is no different.

As we try to manage the “noise” of phone calls, Facebook,
texts, Instagram, radio, and television,
our Meeting is a respite from the overload of news.
Byberry Friends (Quaker) Meeting is a place to find stillness, to meditate, to quiet the “noise”.
